

DISCIPLESHIP

We believe God has called the church to grow together spiritually. We are striving to be a church that seeks Biblical understanding towards living in this world with both truth and grace. We believe you can find a place to grow deep through classes, seminars, small groups, support groups, and study groups.